

6/28/21

- October 29 – November 7
- Coastal anchor weekend: November 5-7 (First weekend in November)
- The use of recreational divers to collect the purple urchins will dictate how many restaurants participate
- Heather Noll's properties (Glendeven Inn, Skunk Train, The Inn at Newport Ranch, Camp Navarro, Little River Inn, Noyo Harbor Inn, Brewery Gulch Inn) would like to participate
- MendoParks can assist to find divers
- Great opportunity to promote Noyo Harbor
- Promote educational activities
- Concert to benefit MendoParks
- Steven bates could play at a benefit concert on the harbor
- Restaurants can tell the story behind purple urchins
- Create table tops to use that weekend with information
- Get Fish and wildlife to agree that those who make a MendoPark donation can get a voucher to a restaurant
- Cally and Elizabeth from MendoParks will try to meet with Heather from Princess Seafood
- "The Ultimate Harvest Experience"

Friday- November 5

Lunch- Harbor House

Evening- various restaurants

Saturday- November 6

Urchin demo and talk- Van Damme State Beach

Lunch- Noyo Harbor Inn

Sake Technical Seminar- Little River Inn

Evening- various restaurants

Sunday- November 7

Tentative talk- Van Damme State Beach (tides wrong for tide pooling)